THURSDAY MAY 27, 1886. What Will the Answer Be?

Democrats of Richmond, you ar called upon to-day to decide whether your party organization shall be preserved. You are called upon to decide whether Richmend shall continue to have a pure Demoeratic government, or whether a number Republicans shall be introduced into your City Council, who, sooner or later, may open the way for the Republican party to take possession, not only of the entire Council, but all the City-Hall offices. That is the issue before you, and you cannot evade it. A heavy responsibility is upon you, and you cannot throw it off. The time in which you must make up your mind as to what you will do is short. What will the answer be?

Will you remain steadfast? Will you be true to the past, true to the present, and | Wake Forest College, North Carolina. The there is but one course for you to pursue. artistic pieces of work. Give to-day to your party, and work until the sun goes down to poll every vote possible for the regular ticket nominated at the Primary. Do not be content with wellwishing, but act. If you think that your vote will not be needed, you are grievously mistaken. Even were victory assured be yond all question your vote would help to | makes a valuable contribution to the literathat the integrity of the party shall be portraits, battle pieces, and carefully-axe-We reiterate that we do not question the honesty of some of the Democrats who, we learn, have been captured by the "Reform' idea. However, that such men have been captured does not render it less obligatory upon the Democratic party to fight the new movement with old-time vigor. Despite the efforts of the Republicans to use the disaffection of those men to obscure their designs, the fact is prominent that the real fight is between | ceived its regular annual kicking in the the Demecratic party and Manone Repub. British House of Lords Tuesday. licanism. Whatever may be the object of others engaged in the "Reform" movement, the olject of the Republicans who endorse it is to pave the way to a complete Republican municipal victory in the future-Whatever soreheads and misguided Democrats may have in view, the goal before the eyes of the Republican promoters of Democratic disaffection is the city treasury. They may reach that goal within a very short time if the Democratic party of Rich. nond fails to do its duty to-day.

And now we make a last appeal to all you consider that you have a grievance trust your own party to redress it. To Democratic government in Richmond is due all the prosperity you have enjoyed ince the war. Under Democratic rule Richmond has gained an enviable reputation as a law-abiding city, and all classes have made steady and healthful progress. Under Democratic rule we have had peace. happiness, and, compared with many other cities, plenty. It is for the Democrats to say to-day whether these blessings shall We again ask, "What will the answer be?"

Stay Buried, Mr. Blame.

And now Mr. BLAINE's speeches are folturning to plague him. Another announce- presidential salary? ment having been made that the "Plumed Knight" continues to look longingly to the presidency, the Independent Republican papers are quoting BLAINE against BLAINE with telling effect. It will be remembered that the closing portion of BLAINE'S Augusta speech was a prophecy of southern domination in the conduct of the Government under Democratic rule. In commenting on that speech the Boston Herald says

But no men can affirm, without insu ing the intelligence and understanding of the people, that 'the South' has dominated the Administration, or that the white people of that section have any purpose inimical to the true welfare of the Union. Mr. to the true welfare of the Union. Mr. Blaine's letter of acceptance, in which he treated the southern question as substantially settled, was truer to the facts than was his hitter wall of disappointment at defeat."

If Mr. BLAINE is smart he will consen to stay baried. Every time he attempts to pop up somebody uses one of his own utterances for the purpose of giving him a

An Up-Hill Business. The efforts of some of the western organs to beem John Shenman for the Republican nomination for President is an up-hill ness. So far the "enthusiasm" ere ated by the mention of his name has not risen above the temperature of John's own refrigerated heart. The Cleveland Plain Dealer, after declaring that the "talk about John Sherman for President will have its termination where it has for the last twelve years whenever his name has been pro-"He (Sherman) is wedded to the bloody-shirt heresy. His political opinious are those of an antiquated statesman and his disappointment in not receiving honors which he considered justly his due have oured his nature, narrowed his mind, and unfitted him to preside as the great executive of this nation."

Exactly. Even were it possible to get another President out of the bloody shirt public recognition of John Sherman's canness would, it seems, bur his way to the nomination.

Vote the Straight Ticket. Democrats, arouse to-day, and vote the straight ticket. Let it not go forth to-night to the rest of the State that Richmond is no longer the citadel of Virginia Democracy. 'Let this election be no exception to the rule that your city always sends good and encouraging news to the party elsewhere. Turn not to the right nor the left, but follow the plain, straight path of duty. Democrats of all classes have all to gain by the election of the straight ticket. The Relicans bave all to gain by the election of "Reform" ticket. Keep these facts adily in view, and do your duty manully. Roll up a big majority for the reguar nonfaces, and even your misguided upon the calendar. We have little doubt House." Our contemporary may rest as-sured that if it does not have fair play in and pass the present House the people will see that men are elected to the next House who will give it fair play and pass it. The masses have made up their minds to secure the benefits of the BLAIR bill or a similar measure, and the politicians would do well not to forget the fact.

Endorse your City Committee, Demo-crats, by polling a full vote for the regular ticket nominated at the Primary. That is the only way to preserve your party organization and avoid trouble in the future.

The Cincinnati papers announce that the nusical festival held in that city last week was not a success financially, as there will be a deficiency of $5,000. May not MUBAT HALSIEAD be responsible in a measure for that deficiency? The course of his paper during the last presidential campaign was such as to cause a number of southern merchants to declare that in future they would let Cincinnati severely alone.

Go to the polls early this morning, cast your vote for the straight Democratic ticket, and then, if you know of any friend who is lukewarm, bunt him up and juduce him to

The Providence (R. L.) Journal, which is stalwart Republican or nothing, in commenting upon the "semi-official announce ment, by the way of Washington, of Blaine's renewed candidacy," remarks that "it may be briefly said that the Republican party is not in the humor to trifle with its fortune a second time." Truly, the bloody shirt is being torn into tatters.

The Winchester Times says:

"No tax-payer in the city of Winchester, nor in the county of Frederick, has paid his tax in coupons since the passage of the Riddleberger bill. It is a proud record for the patriotism of our people and an admira-ble example to other sections of the State." A proud record, indeed.
